FOR SOCIAL CHANGE

214-216 W. 116th Street
New York, NY 10027

The Avery Institute is a national non profit organization committed to a practical visionary approach to health care reform. We link the grassroots, academic and policy communities, giving voice to those who experience the impact of health disparities, to bring about quality health care for all. Through public education, technical assistance, leadership development, Avery is building a new body of knowledge and a cadre of activists focused on community-driven solutions to end health disparities in communities of color and stimulate a grassroots movement for national health care reform.
